IMPORTANT NOTICES

Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer’s decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms. You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance,

Your duty however does not require disclosure of any matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that your insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of its business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

It is important that all information contained in this proposal is understood by you and is correct, as you will be bound by your answers and by the information provided by you in this proposal. You should obtain advice before you sign this proposal if you do not properly understand any part of it.

Your duty of disclosure continues after the proposal has been completed up until the contract of insurance is entered into.

Non-Disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the Underwriters may be entitled to reduce their liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Change of Risk or Circumstances

You should advise us as soon as practicable of any material change to your normal business as disclosed in the application, such as changes in location, acquisitions and new overseas activities.

Subrogation

Where you have agreed with another person or company, who would otherwise be liable to compensate you for any loss or damage which is covered by the policy that you will not seek to recover such loss or damage from that person, the Underwriters will not cover you, to the extent permitted by law, for such loss or damage.

Privacy Statement

We are committed to protecting your privacy. We only use the personal information you provide to us to quote on and insure your risks. We only provide personal information to our underwriters and reinsurers (and their representatives) and those we appoint to assist us with claims under your insurance. We will not trade, rent or sell your information.

If you don’t provide us with complete information, we cannot properly quote for your insurance and the Underwriters cannot insure you. You can check the personal information we hold about you at any time.

If you provide us with personal information about anyone else, we rely on you to have told them that you will provide their information to us, to whom we may provide it, the purposes for which we will use it and that they can access it. If the information is sensitive, we rely on you to have obtained their consent on these matters.

For more information about our Privacy policy, ask us for a copy.
